Overview

Nicole focuses her practice primarily on professional liability defense for healthcare providers, including physicians, dentists, chiropractors, nurses, and others, as well as long-term care litigation. She handles a wide variety of claims, including those alleging negligence and lack of informed consent, as well as claims involving health care providers in administrative proceedings before their respective licensing boards. Nicole has successfully represented clients in all phases of civil litigation, including dispositive motion practice, mediation, and at trial.

Nicole received her undergraduate degree from the University of Minnesota, Morris and her law degree from the University of South Dakota School of Law. She completed a one year clerkship with the Honorable Robert A. Amundson, South Dakota Supreme Court. She has earned Best Lawyers® in America recognition in the area of medical malpractice defense. She is named by The Best Lawyers in America as its 2023 Minneapolis Medical Malpractice-Defendants "Lawyer of the Year." Nicole is a member of the Minnesota Defense Lawyers Association and Minnesota Women Lawyers.

Outside the office, Nicole enjoys running, traveling, and spending time with family and friends.
