Overview

Caleb is an associate in the firm's Mass Tort/Toxic Tort and Products Liability practice groups.

Prior to joining Meagher + Geer, Caleb was an associate at a Minneapolis metro area law firm where he practiced insurance coverage and defense, personal injury and construction litigation.

Caleb graduated from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln (with Distinction) with a B.A. in Philosophy and Sociology, and a minor in Psychology.

Caleb earned his J.D. from the University of Minnesota Law School where he competed in the moot court program, served as a representative of Law Council and participated in the Litigation and Trial Advocacy Group. He was also involved in the student-led Theater of the Relatively Talentless (TORT), where he wrote and performed law school parody musicals. During law school, Caleb represented clients through University of Minnesota's Consumer Protection Clinic.

Outside the office, Caleb enjoys weightlifting, playing Dungeons & Dragons and spending time with his cats.
