Overview

Leah is an associate in the firm's Insurance, Mass Tort/Toxic Tort, Products Liability, and Professional Liability practice groups. Prior to joining Meagher + Geer, Leah represented clients in a variety of roles in the civil litigation context.

Leah earned her J.D. from Mitchell Hamline School of Law. While in law school, Leah was a Summer Law Clerk to the Honorable Donovan W. Frank of the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota. At Mitchell Hamline, Leah served as Editor of the Mitchell Hamline Law Review and she participated in the Mitchell Hamline School of Law Child Protection Clinic as a Certified Student Attorney.

Prior to law school, Leah obtained her B.A. degree in Political Science and a minor in World Affairs from Baylor University in Texas.

In her free time, Leah enjoys hiking with her partner (Ethan) and their two dogs (Boone and Whiskey), reading (usually a thriller/mystery), cooking, and exploring new breweries and restaurants in the Twin Cities.
