Overview

Andrew joined Meagher + Geer as a law clerk in 2023 and became an associate in 2024. Andrew's employment practice includes counseling and defending employers against claims of workplace discrimination, harassment, and wrongful termination. As for his real estate practice, Andrew represents businesses and individuals in shareholder disputes, contract matters, and mechanic's liens.

Most recently, Andrew served as Judicial Extern to the Honorable Margaret Helen Chutich of the Minnesota Supreme Court. He also served as an extern for Wisconsin Supreme Court Chief Justice Annette Kingsland Ziegler.

Andrew earned his J.D. from the University of Wisconsin Law School, where he served as a Note & Comment Editor of the Wisconsin International Law Journal and member of the Moot Court Executive Board. He also participated in the seventy-third annual New York City Bar Moot Court Competition.

Andrew obtained his B.A. degree in Economics and Political Science from Denison University, where he served as a teaching assistant for the economics department.

Outside the office, Andrew stays involved in the community by tutoring the LSAT and serving as a pre-law mentor for students at the University of Minnesota. In his free time, Andrew enjoys trying new recipes and restaurants in the Minneapolis area.
